REFERENCES

[Enter each reference here, following protocol for disclosure set out in your style guide. This format is set up for alpha order by last name, initials, year of publication, title of publication, city of publication. Hanging indent layout. You may also number the references if you are not ordering them alphabetically.]

[Each reference must appear, in whole, on just one page (ie no split references). Additionally any reference that is longer than one line must be single spaced, please maintain double spacing in between entries.]

[URLS should be unlinked so that no blue or underlined text appears.]

[The References section header is a major heading and thus must have a two-inch top margin, be all caps, no bolding or italics]

[Suggest using References – Citations function in Word to ensure consistent formatting and full inclusion of all references.]

[For each type of source – book, journal article, online media – must follow disclosure requirements from your style guide.]

[This is a sample reference. It should have hanging indentations. It should be single spaced within entries longer than one line. It should be double spaced in between entries. The list should be in alphabetical order unless it is numbered. There should be no entries split across two pages. Each entry should appear, in whole on just one page.]
